

Continuing Education Credit Information for ALI-ABA Telephone Seminar

The maximum number of general or self study credit hours approved or recommended for approval in the various states with Mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements are below.

To be eligible for MCLE credit you must:

- Listen to the original live Telephone Seminar. Your attendance at the seminar will be electronically monitored.
- Complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request Page in order to receive access to your Attendance Certificate.
- Print your Attendance Certificate. A link for the Attendance Certificate is provided on the MCLE Request Page upon completion of the survey.
- Request MCLE from the ALI-ABA MCLE department by following the instructions below.

All participants seeking credit for this seminar should retain a copy of their attendance certificate for their records.

An asterisk * below indicates that bar members must take special steps for ALI-ABA to report their attendance for MCLE credit and pay any applicable reporting fees.

State	Instructions
*Alabama	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request Page when you exit the program.
Alaska	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate your credits.
Arizona	Retain your attendance certificate and the written materials to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit of compliance.
Arkansas	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate your credits. Also, send a copy to the Arkansas CLE Board.
*California	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request Page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on your California compliance card. **
Colorado	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. A link to the Colorado Affidavit will be provided.
*Delaware	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the Teleseminar home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate and the written materials to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit of compliance. NOTE: You can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours per 2 year reporting period or half the reporting requirement should it differ from the standard 24 credits through participation in webcast seminars. Approval will be granted on a course by course basis. For further information contact TeamMCLE@ali-aba.org.
Florida	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. A link to the Florida Course Approval Notice will be provided along with instructions on how to file. NOTE: Bar members must now report their credits on line.
*Georgia	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Georgia, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours per compliance period through participation in telephone seminars.

State	Instructions
Idaho	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. A link to the Idaho's special form and a brochure will be provided. Apply to the Idaho State Bar CLE for accreditation.
Illinois	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
*Indiana	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Indiana, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours within a 3 year cycle through participation in telephone seminars. Approval will be granted on a course by course basis. For further information contact TeamMCLE@ali-aba.org.
Iowa	You must complete the questionnaire/ affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to attach to your year-end report to the Iowa MCLE Commission.
Kansas	Not approved for credit.
*Kentucky	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. A Kentucky Attendance Certification card will be forwarded to you, which you must then submit to the Kentucky Bar Association.
*Louisiana	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. ALI-ABA will report your credit to The Louisiana Supreme Court MCLE. The Louisiana CLE Board will NOT accept CLE forms directly from registrants. The Louisiana Supreme Court allows a maximum of 4 hours of credit for technologically assisted course per year. The total number of credit hours earned at this course may not be reflected in your final totals added at the end of the compliance year, but will stop accruing once the 4 hour cap has been reached.
*Maine	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Maine, you can receive a maximum of ½ of your total credit hours per compliance period through participation in telephone seminars.
Minnesota	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit.
*Mississippi	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Mississippi, you can receive a maximum of 6 hours per program; maximum 6 hours per compliance period.
Missouri	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit.
Montana	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported annually to the Montana Board of CLE.
* Nevada	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. Also, return a copy of your attendance certificate to the Nevada CLE Board.
*New Hampshire	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on New Hampshire's Annual Compliance Form.
*New Mexico	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
*New York	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. A personalized New York Attendance Certificate will be e-mailed to you after the program (approximately 4 weeks). Not accredited for lawyers in practice for fewer than two years.

State	Instructions
*North Carolina	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
North Dakota	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported every three years to the North Dakota CLE Commission.
Ohio	Not approved for credit.
*Oklahoma	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
*Oregon	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
Pennsylvania	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. The survey must be completed in order for ALI-ABA to report your attendance to the Pennsylvania CLE Board for credit. After you submit your evaluation, a link is provided on the teleseminar home page to your Attendance Certificate for your records. NOTE: A maximum of 4 credit hours per compliance period may be earned by participating in pre-approved distance learning programs, such as this. Additional credit hours cannot be carried over to the next compliance period. Group telephone seminars are not approved for participatory credit.
Puerto Rico	Participants from this jurisdiction must apply on their own for accreditation of programs.
*Rhode Island	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
*South Carolina	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. NOTE: For South Carolina, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours per compliance period through participation in telephone seminars, 1.5 credit hours per program.
*Tennessee	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
*Texas	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. We will report your attendance online to the State Bar of Texas.
*Utah	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Utah, telephone seminars are accredited for self-study credit only and you can receive a maximum of 12 credit hours per compliance period.
Vermont	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported every two years to the Vermont MCLE Board.
Virginia	You must complete the questionnaire/ affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. A personalized Virginia Attendance Certificate will be e-mailed to you after the program (approximately 4 weeks).
*Washington	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program.
West Virginia	Return your attendance certificate to the West Virginia MCLE Board. NOTE: In West Virginia, you can receive a maximum of ½ of your total credit hours per compliance period through participation in telephone seminars.
*Wisconsin	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported every two years.
Wyoming	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the MCLE Request

State	Instructions
	page when you exit the program. A link to the Wyoming Attorney's Application for CLE credit will be provided. Registrants must apply directly to the state for course approval.
QUESTIONS? Call ALI-ABA at (215) 243-1661 or (800) CLE-NEWS, x1661, or write to ALI-ABA Video Law Review, CLE Credit, 4025 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104-3099.	