

Continuing Education Credit Information for ALI-ABA Live Half-day Webcasts

The maximum number of general or self study credit hours approved or recommended for approval in the various states with Mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements vary from state to state. Information will be available with your course materials.

Your attendance at the seminar will be monitored electronically through your assigned “username.”

IMPORTANT NOTE:

You must respond to on-screen prompts throughout the program if licensed to practice in
AZ, DE, IL, IN, KS, LA, MS, NC, NV, NY, OH, PA, RI, SC, TN, VA, WI
or are requesting CPE credit (when applicable).

- ❖ To receive your Attendance Certificate, at the end of the webcast or when you close your viewing screen, you must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey.
- ❖ Print and save your Attendance Certificate. A link is provided on the webcast home page upon completion of the survey.

All participants seeking credit for this seminar should retain a copy of their attendance certificate for their records.

An asterisk * below indicates that bar members must take special steps for ALI-ABA to report their attendance for MCLE credit and pay any applicable reporting fees.

State	Instructions
*Alabama	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
Alaska	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate your credits.
Arizona	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate and the written materials to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit of compliance.
Arkansas	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate your credits. Also, send a copy to the Arkansas CLE Board.
*California	Complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate MCLE credits reported on your California compliance card. For legal specialization credits the Activity Evaluation Form for California MCLE and Certificate of Attendance for California Legal Specialization will be available on the webcast home page. Complete and mail or fax the form to ALI-ABA and retain your certificate for your records.
Colorado	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A link to the Colorado Affidavit will be provided.

State	Instructions
Delaware	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate and the written materials to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit of compliance. NOTE: You can receive a maximum of 12 credit hours per 2 year reporting period or half the reporting requirement should it differ from the standard 24 credits through participation in webcast seminars. Approval will be granted on a course by course basis. For further information contact TeamMCLE@ali-aba.org.
Florida	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A link to the Florida Course Approval Notice will be provided along with instructions on how to file. NOTE: Bar members must now report their credits on line.
*Georgia	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Georgia, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours per compliance period through participation in webcast seminars.
Idaho	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A link to the Idaho's special form and a brochure will be provided. Apply to the Idaho State Bar CLE for accreditation.
Illinois	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate for your records.
*Indiana	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Indiana, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours within a 3 year cycle through participation in webcast seminars. Approval will be granted on a course by course basis. For further information contact TeamMCLE@ali-aba.org.
Iowa	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to attach to your year-end report to the Iowa MCLE Commission.
Kansas	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For programs filled after 12/1/07, you can receive a maximum of 5 credit hours per program/compliance period through participation in webcast seminars. Claiming hours for segments not actually attended could be a violation of Rule 8.4(c) of the Kansas Rules of Professional Conduct for Lawyers. ALI-ABA must report your credit; the Kansas CLE Commission will NOT accept CLE attendance directly from registrants. Approval will be granted on a course by course basis. For further information contact TeamMCLE@ali-aba.org. Group participation is considered in-house and an application for accreditation must be applied for by the firm 30 days prior to the program.

State	Instructions
*Kentucky	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A Kentucky Attendance Certification card will be forwarded to you, which you must then submit to the Kentucky Bar Association.
*Louisiana	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A Louisiana Course Attendance Form will be forwarded to you to complete & return to ALL-ABA. The Louisiana CLE Board will NOT accept CLE forms directly from registrants. The Louisiana Supreme Court allows a maximum of 4 hours of credit for technologically assisted course per year. The total number of credit hours earned at this course may not be reflected in your final totals added at the end of the compliance year, but will stop accruing once the 4 hour cap has been reached.
*Maine	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Maine, you can receive a maximum of ½ of your total credit hours per compliance period through participation in webcast seminars.
Minnesota	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit.
*Mississippi	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Mississippi, you can receive a maximum of 6 hours per program; maximum 6 hours per compliance period.
Missouri	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on annual affidavit.
Montana	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported annually to the Montana Board of CLE.
* Nevada	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Also, return a copy of your attendance certificate to the Nevada CLE Board.
*New Hampshire	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported on New Hampshire's Annual Compliance Form.
*New Mexico	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
*New York	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A personalized New York Attendance Certificate will be e-mailed to you after the program (approximately 2 weeks). Not accredited for lawyers in practice for fewer than two years.
*North Carolina	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
North Dakota	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported every three years to the North Dakota CLE Commission.

State	Instructions
*Ohio	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Ohio, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours per reporting period through participation in webcast seminars. Group participation is considered in-house and an application for accreditation must be applied for by the firm 60 days prior to the program or there is $100 late filing fee.
*Oklahoma	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
*Oregon	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
*Pennsylvania	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. The survey must be completed in order for ALI-ABA to report your attendance to the Pennsylvania CLE Board for credit. After you submit your evaluation, a link is provided on the webcast home page to your Attendance Certificate for your records. NOTE: A maximum of 4 credit hours per compliance period may be earned by participating in pre-approved distance learning programs, such as this. Additional credit hours cannot be carried over to the next compliance period. Group webcasts are not approved for participatory credit unless open and advertised to the public 30 days prior to the program.
Puerto Rico	Participants from this jurisdiction must apply on their own for accreditation of programs.
*Rhode Island	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
*South Carolina	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For South Carolina, you can receive a maximum of 6 credit hours per compliance period through participation in webcast seminars, maximum of 6 credit hours per program.
*Tennessee	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
*Texas	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. We will report your attendance online to the State Bar of Texas, no longer requiring the use of the Course Attendance Form.
*Utah	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. NOTE: For Utah, webcast seminars are accredited for self-study credit only and you can receive a maximum of 12 credit hours per compliance period.
Vermont	Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported every two years to the Vermont MCLE Board.
Virginia	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A personalized Virginia Attendance Certificate will be e-mailed to you after the program (approximately 4 weeks).

State	Instructions
*Washington	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program.
West Virginia	Return your attendance certificate to the West Virginia MCLE Board. NOTE: In West Virginia, you can receive a maximum of ½ of your total credit hours per compliance period through participation in webcast seminars.
*Wisconsin	To receive credit, you must answer the on-screen prompts throughout the program and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. Retain your attendance certificate to substantiate credits reported every two years.
Wyoming	You must complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey on the webcast home page when you exit the program. A link to the Wyoming Attorney's Application for CLE credit will be provided. Registrants must apply directly to the state for course approval.
CPE Credits (when applicable)
You must answer all on-screen prompts and complete the questionnaire/affirmation and survey if you are requesting CPE credit. Accountants often may earn CPE credits for attending ALI-ABA programs (live programs and Group-Internet-Based webcasts). The registrant generally has the burden of reporting attendance to the state regulatory board. ALI-ABA's attendance certificate may be used. ALI-ABA's approved sponsor numbers: Maryland, E-835; New York, E96-13; Ohio, P-0046; Pennsylvania, PX-407L; Texas, 813; Virginia, 0306 000584. ALI-ABA is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be addressed to NASBA, 150 Fourth Avenue North, Nashville, TN, 37219-2417; telephone: 615-880-4200; www.nasba.org. For more information regarding ALI-ABA's administrative policies, such as complaint and refund, please call Customer Service at (800) CLE-NEWS.
QUESTIONS? Call ALI-ABA at (215) 243-1661 or (800) CLE-NEWS, x1661, e-mail Ismith@ali-aba.org, or write to ALI-ABA Video Law Review, CLE Credit, 4025 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104-3099.	